I shall not be merely weaving

a series of supernatural terrors.

The great discoveries of modern science have been put to horrible use.

Remember,

thou hast made me more powerful than thyself;

your

anguish, is dear to me, a single bomb.

shed countless tears; happy beyond hope

thus inexorable fate be satisfied, and if the destruction

pause before the peace

Again shall you raise the funeral wail,

I received their cold answers,

It is the kind of schizophrenia we physicists have been living with for several years now.

unfeeling reasoning
died on my lips.

my heart, so gentle, yet so gay is murdered!

When I saw that ball of fire, two passages in the Bhagavad-Gita came to my mind.

One was:

"The radiance of a thousand suns which suddenly illuminate the heavens all in one moment—thus the splendor of the Lord."

And the other:

"And I am Death, who taketh all, who shatters worlds. . . ."

I must pause here in silence,

U.S. ARMY

; for it requires

all my fortitude to recall the memory of the frightful events,

in proper detail,

But am I not alone, miserably alone?

, if

You, my creator, abhor me
